Dear Bob:

We are again in your debt for taking the time on a legal holiday and in the teeth of an impending blizzard to meet with our Board. You know that I would have been there were it in any way possible.

Leo and everyone else has told me that your remarks were, as always, stimulating and insightful.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Anne L. Armstrong

Dear Bill:

Thank you so much for giving up a legal holiday and braving the surprising snow to meet with our Board last Wednesday. You know how much I wanted to be there, particularly because it would have been my first occasion to welcome you as the Director of Central Intelligence!

The Vice Chairman and members are unanimous in their appreciation for your time and for what, by all accounts, was a most enlightening and stimulating discussion.

We all look forward to continuing these important meetings throughout 1988.

All best wishes.

Sincerely,

Anne L. Armstrong
